MISSOURI BILL IS FRAMED

MOVEMENT WELL UNDER WAY FOR RESTORATION OF RACING IN THAT STATE.

New Track to Be Built at Kansas City if Measure Becomes Law—Judge Murphy Makes Statement Regarding New Orleans Situation.

St. Louis, Mo., December 2.—Joseph A. Murphy, who has been at Kansas City in the interest of the Missouri bill that he will present to the coming Missouri legislature, arrived home today and reported that the situation in the city on the Kaw was most encouraging. Judge Murphy said: "The better class of merchants in Kansas City will aid in the revival of the sport there. The American Royal Cattle Show must get out of the stock yards, and it is probable that it will find a home with the proposed new track. I saw enough to know that the whole thing can be financed in a few days there. We will have a solid vote in the legislature of members from there for the bill."

Judge Murphy has opened offices in the Syndicate Trust Building and installed W. D. Cave, formerly treasurer of the Klaw and Erlanger forces, in charge. He has had 5,000 copies of his proposed bill printed for distribution and will start a whirlwind canvass to complete his organization before the legislature meets. He hopes to have 2,500 stockholders by January 1. He denounced as untrue statements made at New Orleans by persons who sought to disrupt the movement for the revival of racing that he had leased any privileges to Chas. Smith or anyone else. "I am the paid employee of the Business Men's Association of New Orleans and would no more think of selling any privilege without consulting them than I would think of selling the Grunewald Hotel," he said. "I expect that the Supreme Court of Louisiana is still intact and that the law of that state is still what the court says it is. I have not heard that it has assigned to an expatriated press agent or a professional gambler the task of interpreting the Locke law. It is only a few years back that we carried a case from Jefferson parish to the Supreme Court under this same Locke law. District Attorney Marrero had said that we were not violating the law. The governor said we were and forced Marrero to recuse himself and sent St. Clair Adams, the district attorney of Orleans, to prosecute us. The court bitterly denounced the whole proceeding and threw the case out of court. It said that to the district attorney and the grand jury alone was delegated the power to say whether an information should lie and that the district attorney could not shed his responsibility as he would his coat. And further that when public clamor was the loudest, was the time when of all others he should not shrink his duty. It further inferred that the governor had used his office as an instrument of oppression. Concluding it said: 'That the system of betting as carried on at Suburban Park is a flagrant violation of law is the language of counsel and not of this court, nor is it clear to this court that the law was violated, and we are glad that we are not called on to decide it.'"

Judge Murphy leaves tomorrow for New Orleans confident that the racing situation in the west is brighter than it has been in many years. The racing bill that will be introduced in the legislature provides for the incorporation of associations to conduct contests of speed and endurance, to encourage the display of live stock agriculture, and further provides that no bookmaking or auction pools will be permitted on the grounds of the society, but that when horse racing is carried on for a period not to exceed thirty days in any one year, at least five days of which shall be exclusively for horse racing, the directors of the society are authorized to arrange members or co-operative pools on such races, with a reasonable deduction for the purpose of providing suitable purses as prizes.

WOULD ENLARGE SCOPE OF COMMISSION.
Governor-Elect Whitman Favors Giving New York State Racing Commission Greater Power.

Edward Staats Luther, political writer for the New York Telegraph, furnishes that newspaper with the following illuminative statement of the attitude of Governor-Elect Whitman of New York toward racing: "So much half-baked information, mixed with so much information, has been going the rounds lately in regard to the position of Governor-elect Whitman on the twin subjects of racing and boxing it is time some authoritative statement is made as to the actual views of the new governor on those questions. Several times during the last two weeks the writer has talked with the governor-elect concerning racing and also concerning boxing. During these conversations the governor-elect has gone over both matters with absolute frankness, and has discussed his plans and his ideas without reserve. The details of these talks are not necessary in stating the broad lines of the governor-elect's position. "As governor, Mr. Whitman will not have the slightest desire to interfere with either racing or boxing, if properly conducted. He is of the opinion that racing in this state, as conducted on the big tracks during the last season, is unobjectionable and should be encouraged. He would not want to see a return of the sport to the wide-open conditions that prevailed up to a few years ago, but he believes the State Racing Commission to be a useful body, and he believes it should be continued, probably with enlarged powers which would make the commission the court of last resort in the racing world, thus curtailing some of the powers of the Jockey Club and transferring them to the commission. "Under such conditions the State Racing Commission would issue the licenses to the tracks and would decide appeals. The Jockey Club would decide questions of discipline just as at present, but there would be a right of appeal to the State Racing Commission instead of having the decision of the Jockey Club final on such matters as now. "This would have the effect of making the State Racing Commission a more active body than it now is. In this connection it is interesting to note the present State Racing Commission is serving over time by suzerainty, and that it will fall to the lot of the new governor to appoint a new commission, which probably will be made up in part at least of the present members. The present commission consists of Harry K. Knapp of New York, John Sanford of Amsterdam and James W. Wadsworth of Genesee, the latter the father of Senator-elect Wadsworth."

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

E. C., Hamilton, Ont. The matter resulted in a draw.
J. S. K., Peoria. There was no action except on Earlsmore to show.
J. M., Milwaukee, Wis. Unless there was an arrangement for credit for any deficiency there would be no action in the case of the parlay, for lack of enough to make it.

RECORD OF HARRY PAYNE WHITNEY'S HORSES IN AMERICA THIS SEASON

While H. P. Whitney's racing campaign in England this year resulted in but a scanty measure of success, the contrary was the case in this country. It did not fall to him to attain the exalted position of total of that year. In this connection it is of interest to note that of his aggregate of $63,525 his horses brought back from England contributed such a considerable portion as $25,365, probably considerably more than they would have won in England if kept there. Of the repatriated ones, Nightstick, Borrow, Pantheon and Paintbrush were the best winners. Next year this division of the Whitney stable will be vastly strengthened by the addition of Harmonicon, a horse of the highest class in England and one naturally gifted with amazing speed. In the Broomstick—Jersey Lightning filly Regret, the stable contained what may have been the best two-year-old of the year. At any rate, she won all of her races, taking in succession the Saratoga Special, Sanford Memorial Stakes and Hopeful Stakes, twice defeating the great colt Pebbles, to say nothing of such other cranks as Trojan, Sol's, Lady Barbary, Garbage, Paris, Luke and Tarzan. In the first race she carried 119 pounds and ran three-quarters of a mile in such exceedingly fast time as 1:11 3/4. Containing such a wealth of racing material as it does, and reinforced from England, as it has been recently, the Whitney stable is certain to be a formidable contender for first place in the racing of 1915. Its record this year is:

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Phyllista, which sold for $5 at Lexington Tuesday, is the dam of that good race horse, Phil Finch. It is reported that E. W. Hefner will succeed Frank M. Taylor as trainer of the H. C. Hallenbeck stable. T. H. Griffin, former jockey, has two ranches of 1,800 acres in California. He makes his headquarters at Oakland. Thomas H. McCreary, formerly a trainer of the thoroughbred on the New York tracks, is now managing a ranch at Tracy, Cal. J. H. McCarren's camel, the "iron horse" of the present day, is racing again at Charleston after an absence of several months from the races. It is quite possible that the machines may be put in at Havre de Grace for the spring meeting. The revenue derived from the bookmakers is about half that which the association would have received from the mutuels, and the Harford county promoters are beginning to wake up to that fact. They have seen what the machines have done at Pimlico and Laurel in the way of revenue, and it is hardly likely that they will be content longer with the present state of affairs.—Baltimore News.

OPENING IS AUSPICIOUS

PALMETTO PARK MEETING GETS AWAY TO A SATISFACTORY START.

Kentucky and Eastern Stables Evenly Divide the Purses and Followers of Form Fare Well on the Day's Results.

Charleston, S. C., December 2.—The opening of the Palmetto Park meeting under the auspices of the Charleston Fair & Racing Association this afternoon was an auspicious one, though there was some disappointment because only nine layers quoted prices. The reason assigned for the small number of layers was a reluctance to do business until a better idea regarding the form of the starters can be had. Betting activities began in rather listless fashion, but increased steadily in volume as the afternoon progressed and towards the close speculation was all that could be desired. Form students fared extremely well for four favorites and a staunchly supported second choice scored. The only outsider to win was Kilday, owned by G. W. J. Bissell, Pittsburgh millionaire, and the "rail birds" conversant with his good work-outs over the course hit the books fairly well when he cantered home the easiest winner of the afternoon. The sport was wholesome and keenly enjoyed by most of the spectators.

Prior to the opening, presiding steward Pettigill had a lengthy session with the jockeys and in unmistakable language gave them to understand that no infraction of the racing rules would be tolerated. They were told that any deviations would be dealt with severely, without fear or favor, and that a suspension would mean a lengthy term of idleness. The riders took the official at his word and there was a conspicuous absence of rough riding.

The Kentucky brigade split the honors with the easterners, horses shipped here from Lorton accounting for half of the card when Luria, Kilday and Reno took their respective purses. The eastern horses that won were Colons, Undaunted and L'Aiglon.

General Manager Auerbach expressed gratification over the auspicious opening and opined that as soon as the meeting is well under way there will be many additions to the ranks of the layers.

The only incident out of the ordinary in connection with the racing came when Colons won and was bid up $205 over an entered price of $300. H. Auer did the bidding, but failed to get her. W. C. Westmoreland has succeeded Walter House as trainer of the J. O. Talbot stable. House severed his connection with Mr. Talbot's establishment at the conclusion of the Havre de Grace meeting. He brought south a couple of horses for Mr. Van Orden, El Biod and a yearling. Several horses that came here from Havre de Grace were taken sick en route, among them Valas, Lohengrin and Tay Fay.

NO RACING AT JUAREZ UNTIL SUNDAY.

Revision of Schedule Is Decided Upon as Result of Bad Track Conditions Following Rain.

El Paso, Tex., December 2.—The Juarez track was in such bad condition today following a terrific rain storm that broke over this section last night that Manager Matt J. Winn, after a conference with representative horsemen, decided to declare off the races scheduled for this afternoon at Juarez. In view of the fact that it will take several days for the track to properly dry out, it was also agreed that racing be not resumed until next Sunday. Entries for Sunday's racing will be announced Saturday morning.

The horsemen were quite ready to fall in with the idea of a few days respite because their horses are not keyed up to race in the track conditions that will prevail for the next few days. The loss of the four days this week will be made up by racing continuously from next Sunday until January 27 instead of following out the original plan of having four open days at the end of December. It is believed that the track will be in normal condition when racing is resumed Sunday.

It was with much reluctance that Colonel Winn annulled today's races, as he had invited Col. Tomas Ornelas, commandant of the Juarez garrison, and other Mexican officials to see the sport this afternoon.

Recent work-outs over a slow track at Juarez were as follows:

WARDHA'S MANCHESTER HANDICAP.

The last important stake race of the English flat racing season of 1914, the Manchester November Handicap for three-year-olds, was run at Manchester last Saturday. The distance was one and one-half miles and the winner was D. Jardine's three-year-old bay colt Wardha, by Wargrave—Clergh, carrying the bottom weight of 89 pounds. Second to him was P. Nelke's four-year-old chestnut colt China Cock, by Santol—High Feather, 122 pounds, and C. Howard's four-year-old bay filly Solomon's Mine, by Soliman—Scotch Mine, 99 pounds, finished third. Wardha was nine to 1, while it was 50 to 1 against China Cock and 33 to 1 against Solomon's Mine. Last year this event was won by the American horse Dalmatian.

PREDICTS SUCCESS AT NEW ORLEANS.

New Orleans, La., December 2.—John F. Ryan, manager of the Canadian National Bureau of Breeding, with headquarters at Montreal, Que., is here superintending the shipment of a consignment of horses for the French and English armies that in numbers breaks all records for an American port since the outbreak of the European war.

Mr. Ryan is enthusiastic over the outlook for a successful revival of racing here, in the course of an interview with a representative of the Times-Picayune, he said that he regarded a thoroughbred horse as the most perfect living thing on earth today, next to man. He declared that he has found, from long experience and close study, that the race track does more for the development of the horse than any other agency.

"We consider the race track from the standpoint of its economic value, and find that it is of inestimable worth to the nation," he remarked. "The race track brings out purity in the horse stock, and this same purity is reflected in every branch of industry or effort to which it is applied. If we have more of this correct and careful breeding, such as is required in the development of the race horse, the back and plug soon would disappear. Our experiments in the National Bureau convince me of this fact. Yes, I favor racing as a high class sport, but I favor it more as a means to a great end, an economic end that means added wealth to the nation and the conservation of wealth."

"I was very much gratified to read in the newspapers of this and other cities that representative men of New Orleans were behind the movement to restore racing here, and glancing at the names of those men, I was at once convinced that the project would be conducted on the highest possible plane."

"The old race track with all its objectionable features is not a part of the present day thought or culture, but the new race track, such as is planned for New Orleans, is a proposition that should be encouraged. It is absurd to say that races cannot be conducted according to a high standard of honesty and uprightness. All that is needed is the right sort of men in the movement, and there won't be a suggestion of the old evils that brought the sport into disrepute."

"I think that racing in New Orleans will benefit the city in many ways. It will encourage clean and honest sports, it will add to the attractions and amusements, and bring tourists by the thousands here each winter, and it will also tend to better the class of horses in general use. The race horse, as I said before, represents the highest in breeding, and is the first step to the high-class horse for the army and all other purposes."

"I am firmly of the opinion that racing in New Orleans with the backing it now has, should prove successful from the first. The purpose clearly is to avoid the violation of any law and to elevate the sport to the plane where it will be popular with all people."

"Racing is a great sport in Europe. I have visited all the tracks in the great continental cities, the class of people attending the meetings, and figured that there was no reason why the sport in America should not be conducted in a like manner. The best people in Europe attend the races, and the best people in America attend them also, and under the plan as devised for New Orleans, I see no chance of the sport falling into disrepute, or proving objectionable to anyone."

"I repeat, racing means money to any community, and best of all, it established 'class' in horses."

GENERAL NEWS NOTES OF THE DAY.

"Provisional President Gutierrez will enter Mexico City today and be installed in the national palace there, according to official telegram to the state department at Washington. Villa is at Tacuba, a suburb of Mexico City, and it is believed he has conferred with Zapata there. All reports to the state department indicate that the two chiefs are working in harmony in support of Gutierrez. George C. Carothers, American consular agent with Villa, reported his arrival in Mexico City and will care for American interests with the Brazilian minister and Consul John R. Sullivan. Latest dispatches from Tampico to the state department say the Carranza forces have re-occupied Panuco, which had previously been in the hands of irresponsible bandits. The reports added that the Carranza garrison was maintaining order and had given guarantees to foreigners."

President Wilson and Secretary McAdoo are considering a proposal made by certain individuals that the government loan them money enough to purchase the thirty or more merchant vessels belonging to the Hamburg-American line now interned in United States ports because of the war. The proposition was submitted by Bernard Baker, of Baltimore, president of the Atlantic and Pacific Transport company. It is understood to have the sanction of Paul M. Warburg, member of the federal reserve board, who is the administration's expert on international commerce and finance.

Gen. Carranza's determination to "end the present struggle by force of arms" was asserted in a telegram from him made public by Rafael Zubaran Capmany, at head of the Mexican Constitutional agency at Washington. The telegram denied the rumor that Gen. Blanco had been imprisoned, and said further: "The report that Gen. Gonzalez has declared himself president of the republic is untrue. He is at Pachuca with part of his troops and remains steadfast in his loyalty to the first chief."

John D. Rockefeller will waste no time in his fight for relief from the tax assessment on $311,000,000 against him at Cleveland, so Virgil P. Kille, his attorney, announced today. Within a few days Mr. Rockefeller will ask the federal court to enjoin the collection of the tax. He will contend that the law was not meant to apply to such a case as his and that if it was it is unconstitutional.

Today there are 1,978 saving banks in the United States, in 1909, 936 thrifty Americans have deposited $4,727,493,950. It is a sum greater than any other country in the world has collected, and it exceeds the combined total of the French, the Austrians, Italians, Japanese and British people have on deposit in their communal, private, postal, corporate and trustee savings banks.

The National Security league, an organization which will work toward causing a congressional investigation into the condition of the army, navy and coast defenses of the United States as the first step in a proposed country-wide campaign to insure the enactment of national and state legislation necessary for maintaining national security, has been organized at New York.

A large stock of lyddite exploded with a roar today in a chemical works near Bradford, Eng. Six men were killed and many others injured. Hundreds of windows in Bradford and near-by villages were broken. The people were in great alarm, some of them believing that the noise was the roar of guns of an invading German army.

Representative Gardner will discuss his movement for congressional investigation of the military preparedness of the United States with President Wilson Monday, accompanied by a small committee of men interested in the subject.

President Wilson, after discussing with Secretary Garrison the request of Governor Ammons, of Colorado, that federal troops be withdrawn from some of the Colorado strike districts, decided that nothing should be done at this time.

Another plea for uniforms of khaki and forestry green to replace the blue-drawing white worn by American seamen was made by Surgeon General Braisted of the navy in his annual report submitted to Secretary Daniels.

The Amoskeag Manufacturing company, which employs 16,000 operatives in its textile mills at Manchester, N. H., announced that it would resume operations on a full time basis immediately.

Foreign office dispatches to the Austro-Hungarian embassy at Washington announce ratification of the renewal for five years of the arbitration treaty with the United States.

Progressive party leaders representing about thirty-four states in national conference at Chicago yesterday voted to continue the party organization.

The balance of trade in favor of this country for the eleven months ended with November is approximately $184,275,000.

More than 100,000 men were injured in American mines last year, while 3,651 were killed outright.

MANY BELGIAN HORSES IN ENGLAND.

Mr. de Neuter, editor and controller of "Sport Bolge" in view of helping his compatriots in exile is publishing the paper periodically in London, with the primary object of informing refugees as to the whereabouts of their friends similarly situated, and already his enterprise has borne good fruit and done much to relieve anxiety. His one is as well informed as to the Belgian turf and as racing is perfectly entirely suspended in that country many horses have been sent over here to try their luck, both on the flat and under National Hunt rules. Among these are M. Ed. Ribaucourt's Diamond Star, Phlox, Sirius, Vendome, Philippe, Sunrise, Larigot, Zaria, Lechuz, Fial, Vares and Jason; M. AMERICAN JOCKEY HAS CLOSE CALL.

New York, December 2.—Mickey Miles, American jockey, who is back at his Brooklyn home from Austria, had some thrilling war experiences before he left that country. Miles has been riding in Austria for the past nine years and has become tremendously popular with the horsemen of that country. He was leading the riders this season, and won the last race that was run in the country before the war put an end to the sport. He won that race on Tragopan, a horse that was afterward taken by the army for $600 although his owner had previously refused an offer of $4,000 for him.

Miles' knowledge of horses made him of value to the Austrian army, and he was employed to inspect animals for service. While on a tour of inspection, in an automobile, he was shot from ambush by a party of Servians. One bullet inflicted a wound in the arm and a second tore through his uniform blouse, from side to side and painfully wounded his back, though it was only flesh deep.

It was shortly after this experience that Miles obtained his discharge, and he has the bullet-perforated blouse here with him as a souvenir of his part in the war. Incidentally, he was promoted to a staff position and correspondingly decorated.

Miles had an excellent opportunity to observe the relative merits of horses in the war, for that was his particular province. He says that thoroughbreds in the service were so far superior to all the other horses in service that they were in a class by themselves.

Jockey Miles has been riding for Louis Egedy for the past eight years, and among the big races in which he scored during the past season was the Kozma Memorial at Budapest, in which Miles has the leg up on Baron Uchitzetz's two-year-old colt, Prince Regent.

Winner—B. f. by Sempronius—Illustris (trained by E. Browster).

Went to post at 2:35. At post 6 minutes. Start good and slow. Won easily; second and third driving. LURIA, away forwardly and staying close to the inner rail for the entire way, moved into the lead at once and, after disposing of VILEY, won in a canter. VILEY showed speed and bored out badly most of the way, but held on fairly well in the stretch drive. HEARTHSTONE closed a gap and finished resolutely. EUTERPE ran a good race. DADDY GIP closed a big gap from a bad beginning. AMERICUS ran a good race and tired in the stretch. The winner was entered for $300; no bid.

STAKE WINNING JOCKEYS OF 1914.

James Butwell Carries Off the Honors Both in Respect to Number of Stakes and Amount Won.

With few exceptions, the stake races of 1914 have been run, and J. Butwell stands as the year's leader among the stake winning jockeys, both in respect to the number of stakes won and their aggregate value. The amounts won by the leaders are considerably in excess of the corresponding figures for 1913, in line with the general improvement in racing conditions throughout the country, but, of course, are still far behind the sums that went to the credit of the leading jockeys in the affluent days of the turf. The compilation that follows shows in detail the stake winning record of American jockeys during 1914:
